

Twelfth Judicial District Attorney Scot D. Key salutes the men and women in uniform who have answered the call of duty in Law Enforcement.

In this day and age of nationally covered trials of shootings and death, we sometimes conclude that all of law enforcement is one and the same. However, the reality is that the vast majority of our law enforcement officers are the unsung heroes of our daily lives without mention, without fanfare, and certainly without thanks. It is with that context that the Twelfth Judicial District Attorney wishes to acknowledge our law enforcement partners on this National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day. Without their call to duty, we would be unable to live safely in the community the way we do. Please join us in recognizing their sacrifice. I encourage you to tell these brave men and women how much you appreciate them. We wish all our Law Enforcement partners safety in their everyday service.

On behalf of the Twelfth Judicial District Attorney's Office.

THANK YOU
